CHAPTER 23 Guided Reading Strategies 23 The question-answer relationship (QAR) strategy helps students understand the different types of questions.
By learning that the answers to some questions are "Right There" in the text, that some answers require a reader to "Think and Search," and that some answers can only be answered "On My Own," students recognize that they must first consider the question before developing Question-Answer Relationship (QAR)

This guide leads practitioners through the teaching of the key reciprocal reading skills in order to build confidence in the teaching of reading comprehension and provides templates and models of how comprehension lessons can be structured. Due to Teachers' Guide to Reading Comprehension Strategies P5-S3 An anticipation guide is a comprehension strategy that is used before reading to activate students' prior knowledge and build curiosity about a new topic. Before reading, students listen to or read several statements about key concepts presented in the text; they're often structured as a series of statements with which the students can choose to agree or disagree.
