Epistemology | Naturalism.org Naturalism in epistemology, as elsewhere, has a long history. But it is only relatively recently that it has gone by just that name and received so much focused attention. As in other areas of philosophy, questions concerning naturalism's merits are central to recent epistemological debate. While many epistemological theories and positions ... Naturalism in Epistemology (Stanford Encyclopedia of ... From Chapter 1: "If determinism or naturalism is true, belief in determinism or naturalism is not logically sound." And yet, if determinism is true, the belief in it will indeed be true, despite being logically unsound. So you have to choose between truth or logic. The argument from reason suggests that logic is somehow alienated from the truth.
