People Of Paper: Salvador Plascencia: Trade Paperback ... Throughout The People of Paper, Plascencia provides an outside narrative as Saturn, the all-knowing omniscient figure, who watches the characters as they attempt to overcome personal battles. As Saturn, Plascencia is able to take part in each character's personal struggle, such as Federico de la Fe's depression from his wife's abandonment. The People of Paper - Valdosta 'The people of paper' is a very unconventional and a very experimental novel slash illustration which revolves around enough themes to make it an immensely wealthy piece of literature. Many would however also agree that the story is not necessarily going to appeal to every type of audience and we could call it somewhat of an acquired taste. Essay on "The people of paper" by Salvador Plascenia and ... It becomes clear that The People of Paper is an "experimental" novel in a very conventional sense. (Everything changes but the avant-garde.) Inevitably, therefore, the author himself appears.
